LET THE GOOD TIMES ROLL!

In the bayou wetlands of Southern Louisiana, life's a little different, a little special. From the culture to the cuisine, from the music to the way people celebrate: it's about living life to the full and having some fun along the way.

Around the bayou is sugarcane country rum country: the place where you'll find the Bayou™ Rum distillery. Here we handcraft our rum in traditional copper pot stills, a unique blend of local molasses and fresh raw sugar.

The result is a range of Louisianan rums of extraordinary smoothness and character.

From Bayou Silver, rested for up to forty days to allow the beautiful, crisp, clean flavors to mellow and combine, to Bayou Select, aged in bourbon and Bordeaux barrels under the watchful eye of master blender Reiniel Vicente, each one of our rums has been created to deliver a moment of joy.

And the good times are starting to roll. Across the range, Bayou Rum has picked up 83 taste awards in the last three years – more than any other rum in the world. It's something that's starting to stir a bit of local pride.

AS THE FOLKS DOWN HERE SAY, LAISSEZ LES BON TEMPS ROULER.

TIKI COCKTAILS

The story begins somewhere in 1934 in America when Ernest Raymond Beaumont, having returned from a trip from the South Pacific, opened a small restaurant-bar named "Don the Beachcomber". There, he transferred his image and flavors as seen from his Pacific travels to create the Tiki culture we now know.
